HARRISON BRANDS LODGE PROPOSALS INSULT TO ALLIES

The Defeat of the Peace Treaty a Source of Gratification to Germany, Says Senator.

IMPOSSIBLE TO FORECAST
WHAT SENATE WILL DO.

The Senator Gives It as His Opinion
That All 100-Per Cent. Americans Favored the League.

Senator Pat Harrison, who arrived on the coast, was asked about the probable ratification of the Peace Treaty when Congress reconvenes next Monday, and said: "It is impossible to forecast what the Senate will do. The Republican leaders in the Senate think they are playing politics. The foreign relations committee which reported the Lodge resolution with reservations was dominated by the uncompromising opponents of the League of Nations. The reservations in the Lodge resolution were of such a character and incorporated solely for the purpose of destroying the treaty."

"They destroyed the plan for a League of Nations and if adopted would have insisted on the reservation which we were associated in the execution of the war. The defeat of the treaty was most disastrous, and while it was extremely gratifying to Germany, it was distressingly sorrowful to the rest of the world."

"Nothing could have happened that would have added more to the unsettled condition of business, the unrest among the people, and given greater encouragement to Bolshevism than the defeat of the treaty. We are now deprived of representation on the various commissions now at work in Europe and the advantage that was tendered to the United States through the unexpected gallantry of our fighting forces overseas, in trade, commerce, finance and influence of every kind is gone."

"It is an outrage that no voice represented in the United States will be heard in every European council, insuring our agricultural, industrial and banking interests an equality of treatment in the great work of reconstruction throughout the world."

"Lodge says the treaty is dead, but its adoption is now a political question. Although the Democratic majority in the Senate will do everything within its power to have the treaty ratified as soon as possible when Congress reconvenes and will accept certain reservations, it is not certain that the Senate will not accept such reservations that will nullify the treaty, humiliate our representatives abroad and insult our associated countries."

"The friends of the treaty have had much against them to contend. Every party, every State, every Fein sympathizer, every partisan, Republican and every repudiated Democratic leader who stays in the public eye by constant agitation and appealing to the prejudice of the people and whose sympathies were thrown on the side of Germany in the late war have employed every unfair means and used every deceptive practice to mislead people as to the true purpose of the League of Nations. The sensible, independent, 100 per cent. Americans, in my opinion, favor the plan such as embodied in the treaty that will make for peace and preserve the civilization of the world."

BURLESON APPROVES ONE CENT LETTERS.

Would Take Mail to Local Postal Limits.

Postmaster General Burleson has approved pending bills to reduce the rate of first-class letter postage to a penny an ounce. A letter for delivery within the postal limits of the office in which it is mailed would take a one-cent stamp instead of a two-cent stamp.

Mr. Burleson has advised congressmen that the present two-cent charge on that class of mail exceeds the cost of handling and that he recommends the reduction because he believes the postal service should not be conducted for profit. The reduction of last July whereby letters went back to the normal rate of two cents and postal cards to one cent, the postmaster general says, resulted in a large increase in that class of mail and he believes one-cent local letters would not reduce the total postal revenue more than $14,000,000 a year.

LEST WE FORGET.

Are you still thinking of the mass meeting called for Monday, December 1, at 11 o'clock? Have you been thinking of the things that are going to make the Hancock County Fair a success? Have you once thought of the benefits to be derived from a good County Fair, and of the great work that can be done in Hancock county along this line?

We feel very much indebted to The Sea Coast Echo for its suggestions from time to time, in regard to the future success of the Hancock County Fair. I am well pleased with its suggestion and stressing the commercial side of the fair, and feel that should we have a feature worthy of consideration and advancement, I feel sure that the commercial side of the fair of the coming year is going to be one of the principal features, and I stand ready to give it my support, time and attention as far as necessary.

The feature of the fair that I am going to be compelled to give my strongest support, is that industry on which all others are dependent. Without which the peanut parchers would cease to roll; the factory whistles would tell no more and the strikers would starve for something more than higher wages and shorter hours.

"The industry of agriculture cannot be overlooked, and here are some of the things about farm life that a real county fair should help to solve. Are the boys and girls happier in the city? Are they better educated in all that pertains to life? Are they as thoughtful, steady and sane as the boys and girls on the farm? Will they average as high in all that goes to make good citizenship?"

These are for each of us to solve for ourselves. I am sure that the farmers and thinking men and women have answered them for us all. They have pointed out over and over again, that the leaders in manufacturing, transportation, commerce and war are really farm-raised boys. They have called attention to the fact that as soon as a city man acquires a fair competence, he wishes to buy a farm which his children can have as a heritage—open air, the feel of the ground beneath their feet, the companionship of living, growing plants and animals. From the day of Washington, the great American man has realized that farm life is favorable to clean, clear thinking and right living; and today this is more true than ever, for in the clean environment of country life, in modern homes, and with special attention to school education, farm children develop into clean, clear-headed youths, who are the bulwark of our nation, well educated, clear thinking, sane Americans. Let us do our bit by making a good start, for a fair the coming year that will mean much to the future of Hancock County."

FREE PICTURES AND LECTURES TOMORROW NIGHT.

A. & G. Theatre will be the Scene of Picturization of the Horrors of Near East Crying for Relief.

People of Bay St. Louis and Hancock county are cordially invited to attend a free exhibition of views and accompanying lecture at the A. & G. Theatre, Bay St. Louis, tomorrow evening, Sunday, at 7 o'clock.

The entertainment will be given in behalf of Armenian and Syrian suffering under the grasp of the State Directors for Louisiana and Mississippi Committee for relief in the Near East.

George R. Powell, field secretary for the State of Mississippi, was in the city Tuesday in the interest of the cause, and through the charitable liberality of the management of the A. & G. Theatre arranged for this entertainment and opportunity for our people to learn of the awful conditions existing in the Near East.

Dr. Charles P. Currens, State Director for Mississippi and Louisiana, will be present and will deliver the lecture to accompany the stereoscopic views, and it is hoped that the films that are expected will arrive in time for presentation.

After consulting with Mayor R.W. Webb in the interest of the object, and getting municipal permission, field Secretary Powell made all the arrangements necessary for the afternoon and evening. Given on a Sunday night and for self-appealing cause, it is expected there will be a large attendance.

Mr. Dave Weston, of Logtown, is chairman of the organization for Hancock County, with a secretary and other officers to be appointed. Further information can be had in the premises from Mayor Webb, who has lent an ear and is giving a hand to the thousands of hungry beings who are being held in awful bondage of hunger and clothing, and who must perish unless the world—the other fortunate half—comes to the immediate rescue.

Promis, World To Solve Mystery of Life and Death.

Paris, Nov. 12.—Famous French scientists, headed by Dr. Gustave Gory, famous spiritualists, are now devoting the greatest attention to metaphysics, with a view to coordinating the scientific world's efforts to solve the mystery of death.

For this purpose an international institute of metaphysics was founded today by a group of celebrities, including Henri Bergson, Madame Curie and Charles Richet.

The institute will start immediately for a cult propaganda and a school will be founded for the study of spiritualism in all its phases.

Dr. Gory says he expects great results which will astonish the world, because "the spirit is indestructible."

Bay St. Louis.

FOR THE SEA COAST ECHO.

BY DR. HAROLD N. GUILFOYLE.

In Bay St. Louis by the sea,
The white bungalows so peacefully
Gleam amid palm and live-oak tree,
'Neath ever sunny skies.

O'er the banquettes myrtles lean,
Their delicate pink and palest green
Mingle with china-berries sheen,
To gladden human eyes.

The white shell roads their vistas sweep
With Magnolia blossoms scented deep,
And trailing grey moss pendants sweep
From cypress arches tall.

So placidly the green gulf gleams,
At times its tranquil bosom seems
A mirror for enchanted dreams,
Which hold the soul in thrall.

The south wind, fragrant with the balm
Of Carib spice and Cuban palm,
Soothes the troubled soul to calm,
And breathes life's endless joy.

The fishing boats upon the Bay
Drift slowly to and fro, or lay
At anchor where the porpoise play,
And speckled trout, so coy.

But, Ah! The glorious summer night,
When the bright moon sheds her liquid light
O'er rippling Gulf and beach sands white,
'Tis then we are impressed.

With the lure of Bay St. Louis' charms—
We fain would linger in her arms,
And, banishing dull care's alarms,
Enjoy unending rest.

THANKSGIVING BASKET BALL GAME AT KILN.

Kiln High Wins Double Header, Defeating Caesar and Sellers.

Despite the bad weather and roads the Kiln Basket Ball team met the Caesar and Sellers team on Caesar's court for a "double header." Thanksgiving. Both teams present. The game with Caesar was called first, and from start to finish was hard fought. At the end of the first half Caesar was leading by three points, but when the Kiln boys went in with the best they had, and it was only a short time before the tide was changed and by the end the score was 17 to 14 in favor of Kiln.

After a thirty-minute rest the game with Sellers was called, and, like the first, was full of pep, but the Kiln boys being already in trim started off leading and held their own. However, it was close until the latter part of the last half when Kiln seemed to have gotten away with some excellent team work and ended it with a score of 14 to 7 in her favor.

LOCAL LUMBER COMPANIES WIN IMPORTANT SUITS.

In practically all of the cases brought by State Revenue Agents Robertson against the various lumber and sawmill companies in South Mississippi which were removed to the Federal court at Biloxi from the chancery court in the Southern district comprising George, Green, Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Lamar,

Pearl River, Perry and Stone counties, Judge Holmes has rendered a decree in each case, dismissing the bills of complaint and granting all leases, deeds and conveyances made by the Board of Supervisors of these counties to the Jordan River Lumber Company, Wolf River Company, Ingram-Day Lumber Company and the Edward Hines Lumber Company to remove merchantable timber to be valid.

CIGARETTES DUE TO TAKE ANOTHER JUMP.

New York, Nov. 24.—The high cost of smoking is going higher. One of the largest concerns with branches in all parts of the country, that the retail prices of popular American "blends" of cigarettes, now retailing at eighteen cents a package of 20, would be advanced to 20 cents, or something over 11 per cent, about December 1. The raise, it is declared, to make up an increase of 80 cents a thousand in the wholesale price. Higher cost of cigarette tobacco is blamed for the advance.

Jackson to Drill for Oil.

Responsible business men of Hinds County, more than fifty in number, have organized the Mississippi Co-operative Oil Company, with a capital stock of $100,000, for the purpose of making a thorough test for oil in the Jackson vicinity. No less than five test wells is the plan of the company.

The scheme is not a wildcat proposition, but is backed by men well known for their ability and integrity.

MONTELEONE-CHETTA.

Mr. Ben Monteleone, of Bay St. Louis, and Mrs. Doretha Chetta, of New Orleans, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Sunday evening at 6:00 o'clock at the church of Our Lady of the Gulf. Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch, pastor, performed the ceremony within the chancel rail, in the presence of quite a number of friends who had assembled in happy spirit to witness the interesting ceremony. Many friends of the contracting parties residing away had come to be present, and these were guests at a quiet but splendid dinner given during the afternoon hours at the home of Mr. Monteleone.

The bride is an attractive and very charming young woman, of a most amiable and sunny disposition, and has many friends.

The groom is a well-known, successful business man of this city and is worthy of having won the hand of one who is to grace his home in the future. He is a well and popularly known both here and in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Monteleone have the best wishes of their many friends both here and away, and the heartfelt felicitations of so happy and auspicious an occasion.

Death of Mrs. Madeline Landrieu Keller.

Mrs. A. U. Gragnon received a message Monday telling of the death at Houston, Texas, of her sister, Mrs. Madeline Landrieu Keller, which occurred on the morning of that day at 12:14 o'clock, after a year's illness. Mrs. Keller had lived for years at Franklin, La., but of late resided with a son at Houston. She had been at the Baptist Sanitarium for quite awhile, where every ministrations possible was given her, but her ailment was such that time only made greater inroads, and the inevitable was not unlooked for.

Mrs. Keller was a native of Bay St. Louis, born here on the old Landrieu place (now the Voorhies farm), 68 years ago. She was the youngest of five children, namely: Mrs. Celestine Gardabiel, deceased; Mrs. Elmore Payard; Mrs. Amelie U. Gragnon; Henri Landrieu, deceased; and Victor Landrieu, of New Orleans. In addition to the surviving brother and two sisters, there are four sons.

The remains were conveyed from Houston to the old home at Franklin, La., where the funeral took place from the residence of her son, S. F. Keller, Tuesday afternoon, the 26th, at 4:30 o'clock, with services at the Catholic church, which faith the deceased had been following and devout member. Mrs. Gragnon and her daughter, Miss Amelie, left at once for Franklin on receipt of the sorrowful news and were present for the funeral.

Mrs. Keller will be remembered by many of the older residents of Bay St. Louis. She frequently visited here after her marriage, but of late years owing to her advanced age and ill health did not make as frequent trips as she was wont to do.

Mrs. Gragnon, Mrs. Payard and the other local relatives have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement, and the local heart will go out to the immediate and other relatives residing away. Mrs. Keller was an excellent woman, and her demise removes one who was loved wherever she was known, and whose charities were many and noble.

GOVERNOR-ELECT LEE RUSSELL AP- POINTS STAFF MEN

Selections Made from All Walks in Life—Fifteen Members of Old Staff Selected.

FORTY-SEVEN NEW MAJORS
ON STAFF.

Honorable J. B. Crawford Appointed
Private Secretary, Billy
Buck's Old Job.

Governor-Elect Lee M. Russell of Mississippi has made public the names of the men who will serve on his personal staff during his term as governor, says the Commercial Appeal. The membership of the new executive staff totals 47, and exceeds Gov. Bilbo's staff by eleven members.

Gov. Russell said last night, in announcing the appointments, that he had selected men from all classes and average labors, with the former in the majority. The members of the new staff met in Jackson yesterday to have measurements taken for the uniforms which they will wear for the first time at the inauguration of Gov. Russell on January 13. In making the appointments the new governor retained fifteen members of Gov. Bilbo's staff.

Gov. Russell has appointed Hon. J. B. Crawford of Jackson, as his private secretary. Mr. Crawford is the present secretary of the State Board of Pardons. He is 37 years of age, and prior to his appointment as secretary of the pardon board, was engaged in the insurance business in Jackson.

In announcing the selection of his private secretary, Gov. Russell said that he had been forced to break a precedent set by former Governor Vardaman. He regretted, he said, that he could not retain W. J. Buck, who has served as private secretary to four governors. Mr. Buck was elected Supreme Court clerk last year and for the first time in sixteen years a Mississippi governor has had to look about for a private secretary.

The New Staff.

The following is a list of Governor Russell's staff, as announced last night:

Ford metallurgists have been studying that problem for sixteen years and know just how each unit should be made to endure a maximum of wear and tear. They know that best results can be obtained only by the use of special formulas for different parts.

V. N. U., BIRMINGHAM, NO. 45-1919.

The following simple recipes have no harmful ingredients and will accomplish results as well as ready mixed remedies for the same ailments.

An Astringent Cream.

A well-recommended astringent cream is made from four ounces of mutton tallow, one and a quarter ounces of glycerin, one-half a dram of tincture of benzoin, a quarter of a dram of spirits of camphor, one-eighth of a dram of powdered alum, one-quarter of a dram of Russian glass and one-half an ounce of rose water. The rose water is warmed in a china cup set in hot water and the glass is dissolved in it. The mutton tallow, which has previously been tried out at a gentle heat and added to the glycerin, is then blended with the rose water, and the other ingredients are added, while the mixture is being beaten. This makes a cream which is astringent, tightening the skin, without allowing it to become flabby, as often happens when it is reducing flesh.

Receding Gums.

By wrapping the afflicted toe with soft linen rag which has been saturated with turpentine, night and morning. Care should be taken to wear shoes sufficiently wide but not too large.

Excessive Perspiration.

Sponge off the parts affected at least once a day with boric acid; use 20 parts of hot water to one of acid. Also dust the face and neck, and wherever it is necessary with a dry borax powder.

To Overcome Odorous Perspiration.

When bathing put a few drops of ammonia in the water, dry the skin well and dust with the following powder: Oleate of zinc,  $\frac{1}{2}$  ounce; powdered starch, 1 ounce; salicylic acid, 1 scruple.

For Chapped Lips.

To prevent the chapped lips that so frequently result from the high winds try rubbing the lips each time before going out with rose water and glycerin, mixed in the proportion of two parts of the former to one of the latter.

Good teeth are requisite for, both health and good looks. Go to a dentist and have the tartar removed from under and around the gums, then use tooth salt on the gums several times a day. Scrub the teeth downward, never backward. The teeth should be cleaned before breakfast, after each meal and before retiring.

For a Slight Scar.
Spirits of camphor, touching the skin with it twice a day, will sometimes eradicate the spots left from pimples. The liquid should be gently rubbed in.

To Remove Corns.
Salicylic acid, in grain, trim the corn with a very sharp knife or razor blade. Apply the acid; cover with piece of court plaster. In three days remove the plaster and the corn will come with it. Soft corns may be cured

For the Feet.
No. 1—Wash the feet in warm water to which a little hydrochloric acid or chloride of lime has been added.
No. 2—Bathe the feet often in a strong solution of borax or in common kitchen soap dissolved in water. Change the hosiery every day.

Breakfast Linen.
Colored breakfast linen is in favor. Square dishes which hang only a few inches above the table and are of small napkins, about 14 inches square, are either of colored linen or else are bordered with color. Some in sets show border wreaths of red roses, some show red roses with bright green leaves. They suggest breakfast sets and English china with its gay colors and the all-colored sets show pink, blue or yellow flowers on tan or gray linen.

Dinner and evening gowns, perhaps as the result of a reaction after the estraining of war times, have swung to the other extreme and are as elaborate as ingenuity can make them, and reach beyond anything that has gone before for many a year. Cloth of gold and silver, satins with gold or silver figures scattered over their surfaces, brocades, rich embroideries encrusted with jewels, laces and nets that are a mass of twinkling sequins, rings of all kinds, and always more cloth and silver cloth, entice those who are looking for regal things to choose out. Metallic threads are woven in rich silk in all the lovely evening gowns so that rose and silver, turquoises and gold, rife green and silver make wonderful shimmering cloths. However fastidious as foregather there will be much glittering this winter.

And these rich fabrics are not monopolized by the half-dressed women of society. The younger set is allowed access as the foundation for frocks usually veiled with tulle, artificial flowers deck out pretty dancer frocks and sparkling bands of sequins in all colors are used on tulle to match in color. For older women ostrich plumes which gowns where one might look for flowers, and are used in the evening coiffure and in the most splendid of fans.

A lovely example of a sequin-covered gown for evening appears at the right of the two pictured above. It is a combination of white and black, in which these glittering fabrics are at their best. This gown has long and almost straight lines and the skirt shows the disposition to grow shorter which is making itself felt. It is shortened at the front. A tuft of ostrich feathers at the left side in black and a big fan of black ostrich and themselves in a perfect setting. A wonderful Spanish comb makes a simple coiffure, impressive and in keeping with the gown.

But not everyone cares for so much glitter even for evening wear. At the left is a less pretentious gown that is dignified and beautiful. Black satin, georgette crepe and beaded bands of jet are put together in a composition that can hardly be improved upon—its lines are classic. Three-quarter length sleeves and a draped skirt (that is unusually long) take cognizance of the mode.

Canary Colored Linen.
The moment linen was available for sale, women found they could not do without a few linen costumes for this season. The deep is the love of feminine for this comfortable fabric, and the new styles are appearing at many of the fashionable departments of the city. The colored linen is especially popular.

Scarfs of Wool.
Sport scarfs of wool and wool Angora cloth are much in evidence. Many of these are finished at the ends with long, tapered, wool fringe or tassels. They are worn in many like the Winona, Minn. "I suffered for more than a year from nervousness and weakness so bad I could not rest at night—would leave awake and get so nervous I would have to get up and walk around in the morning would be all tired out. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and thought I would try it. My nervousness soon left me. I sleep well and feel fine this morning and able to do my work. I can recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make weak nerves strong."—Mrs. ALBERT SULTZ, 603 Olmsted St., Winona, Minn.

How often do we hear an expression among women, "I am so nervous, I cannot sleep," or "It seems so heavy I should cry." Such women should profit by Mrs. Sultz's experience and give the famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

DIVIDING THE FAMILY AUTO

There is a distinct feeling in a Miami family, due to a difference in mother and father's politics, he being a Democrat and she a Republican. Also, there is a family automobile. The Miami Police during the last election made an announcement that the house made a poll. Immediately mother rose in protest. "Huff of that machine is he!" she stormed, "and you are not going to use it to haul Democrats to jail!" Father was rather warm under the surface then. "Indeed I am," he retorted. "Tomorrow is my day to use it and I intend to use it to haul Democrats to jail." The next day it was as usual and he can use my half of it as well as mine to haul Republicans to Jail!" For all I care,"—Indianapolis.
